

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF FULTON COUNTY

Board Established by: County

Description:

The Fulton County Certified Development Corporation (which was established at the Special Meeting of the Board of Commissioners on April 20, 1983) and the Greater Atlanta Small Business Project (GRASP) merged to create the Development Corporation of Fulton County in 1988. Shortly after this time, the name was changed to the Economic Development Corporation of Fulton County (EDCFC) for purposes of certification. The purpose of the EDCFC is to make 504 asset-based loans to companies in Fulton County. The members include representatives from government, private-sector lending institutions, community organizations, and business organizations.

Membership/Appointment:

The Economic Development Corporation will consist of twenty-eight (28) members. Each Commissioner will appoint one member to serve on the corporation. The other twenty-one (21) members shall be representatives of community in which the Corporation operates. The Board of Directors will consist of nine (9) members elected by the members of the EDCFC. The President of the Economic Development Corporation serves as an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. The appointment process changed due to federal regulatory laws for certification.

Term:

Members of the Economic Development Corporation serve an indefinite term. Members of the Board of Directors serve for two (2) years.
