Water Footprints

Through activities and discussion, students investigate the impact of our daily choices on water use and conservation both locally and globally, and discuss ways to reduce our water consumption.

GSE: SB5, SEV1, SEV2, SEV4

Students discover some of the methods used to monitor water quality in our local streams and discuss human activities that impact water quality and strategies to protect local waterways.

Water Quality Lab

GSE: SEV4

Students explore careers available in the water field including: drinking water treatment, wastewater treatment, laboratory science, construction, maintenance, and more.
